Body Text:

Sometimes daily research tasks can get in the way of your passion for science.

World Effica provides clinical research, statistical design and analysis, and IT support to research scientists.

We can serve as your on-call assistant if you don't have an RA, or help you get grant funding to hire one.

- Improve clinical data quality
- Get expert guidance on regulations
- Manage programs more efficiently
- Generate more papers and presentations
- Write effective proposals to secure funding
- Access full-service IT support

Our clinical team is comprised of professionals with nearly four decades of combined experience in academic hospitals and research methodology, who have been published in nearly 200 scientific publications.
