

Come See Us at the Nashville Home Show, February 20-22

Agape Animal Rescue is excited to be a part of this year's Nashville Home Show! The event, now in its 60th year, offers a full lineup of seminars led by award-winning experts in areas like home design, landscaping, color, home building, and food.

But this year's event is extra special because it includes several pet rescue organizations, one of which is Agape Animal Rescue! We want to express our gratitude to The Grove, a luxury home community in College Grove, for sponsoring our booth and giving us a chance to connect with the community.

Our presence at this event will allow us to spread the word about our organization to many people who may be unfamiliar with us. It will also give some of our dogs a chance to be seen by potential families, as we'll have several available in our booth that are ready for adoption.

And if you're looking for a luxury dog house for your pooch (and we mean luxury – it has tile floors!) we'll be auctioning off our own designer dog house during the weekend. All proceeds will benefit Agape. You also won't want to miss the event's "Parade of Pet Homes" that will showcase dog, cat, and even potbelly pig homes built by some of Nashville's leading architects. They, too, will be auctioned off during the weekend to benefit local pet charities.

The Nashville Home Show runs from February 20-22 at the Tennessee State Fairgrounds. Hours for the show are 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, and 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Cost is only $10 for a one day pass.

For more information about this event, visit <http://houseandhomenashville.com/>. For more information about The Grove, visit <http://groveliving.com/>.